

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 1822

Introduced by Assembly Member Beall

January 18, 2008

An act to add Section 4327 to the Family Code, relating to spousal support.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 1822, as introduced, Beall. Spousal support: sex offenders.

Existing law provides that if a spouse is convicted of attempting to murder the other spouse, the injured spouse is entitled to a prohibition of any temporary or permanent award for spousal support or medical, life, or other insurance benefits or payments from the injured spouse to the other, convicted spouse.

This bill would provide that in an original or modification proceeding, the court shall deny any temporary or permanent award for spousal support to a party who has been convicted of a sexual offense in which the victim was a minor.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Section 4327 is added to the Family Code, to
- 2 read:
- 3 4327. In an original or modification proceeding, the court shall
- 4 deny any temporary or permanent award for spousal support to a

- 1 party who has been convicted of a sexual offense in which the
- 2 victim was a minor.
